Workshop on mental health

A CORRESPONDENT

NAGAON, Dec 30: As part of the diamond jubilee of Nowgong Girls' College, the Education Department of the college organised a daylong workshop on mental health and hygiene of students on Wednesday at the college auditorium. The programme was chaired by Dr. Bala Kr. Bhattacharya, principal of the college while Dr. Manoj Kumar Chitra, head of education department, initiated the workshop.

Dr. Sapna Neog, former head of Education Department, Nowgong Girls' College, graced the occasion as a keynote speaker.

In her speech, Dr. Neog stressed on the mental health and hygiene of the students and urged the students' community to set a positive mindset to sustain a strong mental health.

Referring to the COVID pandemic situation, Dr. Neog also laid stress on the hygiene of students. He said, "With a strong mental health, students can develop their abilities as well as their careers." Manoj Kumar Chitra, head of the department of political science also graced the occasion and spoke on the topic. Over hundred students and teachers participated in the workshop.
