Nowgong Girls' College

Nowgong Girls' College, the pioneering educational institute caters to the higher educational needs of the girl students. The college serves for the students of Nagaon and its neighbouring districts, i.e., Marigaon, Karbi Anglong, North Cachar Hills, Golaghat, etc. From a very humble beginning in 1962, the college has flourished to imparting both post-graduate and undergraduate level of education. The College has been playing a vital role in building a just society for the past sixty years by providing essential education to the girl child. It is committed to contributing towards India's aspiration to become a global knowledge superpower. The college aims to create a vibrant campus environment that encourages students to engage in various extracurricular and co-curricular activities in addition to their regular courses. Such initiatives foster a sense of involvement and belongingness among the students. The college firmly believes that students are at the core of the educational ecosystem and, therefore, consistently works on establishing a student-centric approach.
